Thoughts from the Principal...

People are generally skeptical and I believe they come by this skepticism honestly. You see, it is difficult for most people to accept that they could receive something great with no strings attached. We are conditioned by experience to realize that there are always strings attached, often strings that are detrimental.

In our society today we are constantly barraged by ads that promise something great to us. Most often it is a financial benefit, but it could also be promises of improved health, weight loss, general fitness, or even mental and spiritual benefits. If you buy into their product, service, or plan, everything will be so much better for you. Most of us are smart enough to know that there are no shortcuts and that there is always a catch. Most of the time things aren't what they seem, and sometimes people end up in much worse shape than they were to start with.

I tell you that to tell you this: It is probably wise to be skeptical when it comes to the world and what it has to offer. But there is one area that allows us to bury our skepticism and dive in with both feet. God offers us peace and joy because He has sent His Son to take the responsibility for all of our sins. No matter what we have done or will do, we are forgiven completely. We do not have to give anything to receive this amazing grace. There are absolutely no strings attached. Absolutely none.

May we all accept this great gift from God and claim the peace and joy that comes from knowing that we are forgiven. May the peace of God which passes all understanding be yours, and may it keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus, unto life eternal.

Blessings to All,

Steve Hall; Interim Principal

St. Paul Lutheran School

8th Grade Winter Sports Recognition will be held before the last game this Wednesday, January 28th for both basketball and cheerleading.

Team Pictures are scheduled to be taken Thursday, 1/29 at 9:00 in the school gym.

All basketball players and cheerleaders should have their uniforms at school to be part of the pictures. Individual and team photos will be taken and will be available for purchase.

We were blessed to be visited on January 15 by the Pittman family, who are Lutheran Missionaries to Kenya. To help support their ministry, we sold ice cream bars during lunch on Thursday, January 22nd. We will also have a "Wear Pajamas for $1.00 Day" on Thursday, 1/29. The proceeds from both events will be sent to the Pittman family. Thank you for your support.
